

LEVEL 2

Level 2: Filtering the Data

Your second task is to filter invalid samples of the training data. The training data contains some sample that are not 30 moves long. You should filter out these samples and generate the histogram again.

The output format is the same as for Level 1.

For all following levels you should use the filtered training data.

